I confirm that I wrote a letter to Jenny Gatt of Allcare Insurance on the 29th of April, 2000, whereby I informed her that I wished to review

the premiums. However I confirm that I spoke to Jenny Gatt several times before I wrote the said letter.

I remember mentioning the sum of Lm20,000 in relation to the sum insured. This figure was an approximate figure since I had to speak to the auditors beforehand.

I did not indicate the said amount in my letter of the 29th April, 2000, since I presumed that once I had mentioned the figure verbally on the phone I did not need to re-mention it in my letter to Allcare Insurance.

I confirm that the company had a cash flow problem, however I deny mentioning to Mr Said that I was refusing to pay the amount claimed due to this cash flow problem. I confirm that I had accepted to offset the amounts due as premium in 2001, for uniforms which my company was to supply to plaintiff company. I confirm that I repeatedly accepted to pay the premium due for the year 2001.
