The defendant admitted the charges brought against him; these are consequently sufficiently proven.

With regards the penalty to be meted out the Court considered on the one hand the nature of the charges of which defendant is being found guilty, and on the other hand his cooperation with the investigating officer, his admission at the earliest stage of the proceedings, and his clean conviction sheet.

Wherefore the Court, after having seen sections 95, 96 and 338(ee) of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, on his admission finds defendant guilty of the charges brought against him and condemns him to six (6) months imprisonment which by application of section 28A of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta are being suspended for a period of two years, and to a fine of four thousand Euros (€4,000) which fine is to be paid in monthly installments of five hundred Euro (€500) with the first installment being due on the 15th February 2022.
