Having seen that the accused registered a guilty plea soon after the prosecution read and confirmed the charges under oath.

Having seen the acts of the case.

Having heard the defence counsel and the prosecuting officer's final oral submissions in relation to the punishment to be inflicted upon the accused.

Considerations:

This is a case where the accused admitted to the charges brought against him at the very first opportunity.

The Court, took cognisance of the fact that the prosecution agreed that the accused should not be punished with an effective jail term, and this in view of the fact that the accused needs help in dealing with certain anger issues, and having considered the circumstances of the case and of the accused, particularly his age and the fact that according to the prosecuting officer the accused was under the influence of alcohol when he committed the offences with which he had been charged.

In view of the accused's voluntary admission, the Court has no other option but to find the accused guilty of the charges brought against him.

Decision:

For these reasons, the Court, having seen articles 202(e), 214, 215, 216, 222A(7), 251(3), 338(g), 338(dd), 338(ee), and 339(1)(d)(e) of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, upon the admission of the accused Adam Khairi Ali Eteer, holder of ID card number 525120(L), finds the said accused guilty of all the charges brought against him, and since the Court is of the opinion that there exist the necessary circumstances referred to in article 7 of Chapter 446 of the Laws of Malta, orders that the accused be placed under a Probation Order for a period of three (3) years from today, and therefore orders that Adam Khairi Ali Eteer, holder of ID card number 525120(L) be placed under the supervision of a Probation Officer assigned to him by the Director of Probation and Parole Services. This probation order is subject to the conditions listed in the decree given today which decree shall form an integral part of this judgement.

In accordance with Article 7(7) of Chapter 446 of the Laws of Malta, the Court explained to Adam Khairi Ali Eteer in clear terms which he understand, the effects of the Probation Order as well as all the conditions listed in the decree attached to this judgement, and therefore that if he fails to comply with the Probation Order and those conditions listed in the decree and/or in case he commits another crime during the term of the Probation Order, he may be charged and sentenced for the crimes of which he has been found guilty by this judgement, as well as the consequences that may be suffered in case of failure to adhere to the terms of the Probation Order mentioned above.

The Court makes a protection order in terms of Article 412C of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta for a period of three (3) years for the protection of Vincenza Alessio Stancanelli in accordance with the conditions mentioned in the decree handed down by this Court contemporaneously with this judgement, and which forms an integral part of it. The Court orders notification of this judgement and the protection order to the Commissioner of Police and the protected person.

The Court further makes a treatment order in terms of Article 412D of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta for a period of three (3) years in order for the defendant to be treated in terms of the directions given by the probation officer and according to the decree handed down by this Court contemporaneously with this judgement, and which forms an integral part of it. The assigned Probation Officer shall report in writing to the Court with the offender's progress every six (6) months. The offender declared that he agrees to submit himself to treatment in terms of the said order.
