Having seen the consent of the Attorney General and of the defendant that these proceedings should be summary ones.

Having heard the defendant file a guilty plea in the sitting of the 3rd September 2009.

Having heard him confirm this guilty plea after having given him enough time to reflect on the consequences. Hence the charges have been proved in accordance with the law and the defendant is guilty as charged.

Conclusion

The Court, having seen Section 32(1)(c) of Chapter 217, 17(b), 151 and 181 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, finds the defendant guilty of all the charges against him.

As to the penalty, the Court is taking into consideration the fairly early guilty plea and also the Prosecution's declaration that the defendant has helped the Executive Police in a substantial way.

So the Court is condemning the defendant to 9 months imprisonment from which the period spent under arrest must be deducted.
