The Court,

Having read the charge by which the accused were charged with having on the 4th March 2002, and on the previous days without having been granted a residence permit landed or were in Malta without leave from the Principal Immigration Officer .

That the above cannot show that they have the means to sustain themselves and can become a charge on public funds .

The Court was therefore requested that besides awarding the punishments according to Law, to declare the above mentioned persons as prohibited immigrants and issue a removal order against them in terms of Sections 14 and 15 of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta .

The Court, having also considered the particular circumstances of the case, finds all the accused guilty as charged, but in the particular circumstances, condemns them to one week imprisonment which is suspended for one month, and this without prejudice to any application for refugee status which the accused would apply to .

The Court also orders the removal of the same accused according to section 14 and 15 of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta .
