Today, the 3rd of April, 2014

The Court,

Charged with having on the 3rd of March, 2014 or previous days in these Islands forged, altered or tampered with documents or used or had in his possession forged documents which he knew to be forged, altered or tampered with, that is with having had in his possession an Italian residence permit, an Italian passport for aliens, and an Italian identity card (Chap. 61, Sec. 5 of the Laws of Malta);

And charged also with having on the same date, time and circumstances committed any other kind of forgery or having knowingly made use of any other forged document, that is the above mentioned documents (Chap. 9, Sec. 189 of the Laws of Malta);

And charged also with having on the same date, time and circumstances forged any documents or a true copy of a document or an entry made in pursuance of this Act, Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta.

Having seen section 189 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, section 5 of Chapter 61 of the Laws of Malta and section 32(1)(d) of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta.

Having seen the consent of the Attorney General for this case to be tried summarily, and that the defendant had no objection to the case being so tried.

Having seen that the defendant admitted the charges brought against him and confirmed this admission of guilt even after having been given time to reconsider his plea.

Having seen the acts of the proceedings.

Having heard the submissions regarding the penalty to be meted out.

Having considered

That defendant admitted the charges brought against him; these are consequently sufficiently proved.

Regarding the penalty to be meted out the Court took into consideration the nature of the offences of which the defendant is being found guilty, his cooperation with the police, and his admission at the earliest stage of these proceedings.

Wherefore the Court, after having seen section 189 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, section 5 of Chapter 61 of the Laws of Malta and section 32(1)(d) of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta, on his admission finds defendant guilty of the charges brought against him and condemns him to six months imprisonment.
