The Court was requested to provide for the security of Jennifer Azzopardi by applying the requisites of Article 412C and 383 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta.

Having seen that the prosecuting officer withdrew all the charges brought against defendant except the third one.

Having seen that the defendant admitted the third brought against him and confirmed this admission of guilt even after having been given time to reconsider his plea.

Having seen the acts of the proceedings.

Having heard the submissions regarding the penalty to be meted out.

That defendant admitted the third charge brought against him; this is consequently sufficiently proven.

Regarding the penalty to be meted out the Court took into consideration the nature of the offence of which the defendant is being found guilty on the one hand, his cooperation with the police and his admission at the earliest stages of the proceedings.

Wherefore the Court, whilst declaring the procedure extinct in so far as the the first, second and fourth charges are concerned, after having seen section 339(1)(b) of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, on his admission finds defendant guilty of the third charge brought against him and by application of section 22 of Chapter 446 of the Laws of Malta discharges him on condition that he does not commit another offence in the period of one year; furthermore, and by application of section 383 of the said Chapter 9, in order to provide for the security of Antonio Piscopo and for the keeping of the public peace is ordering the defendant to enter into his own recognisance in the sum of one thousand Euro (€1000) for the period of a year.
