Having heard witnesses;

Having seen all the acts and documents exhibited;

Having heard the prosecution and defence counsel make their submissions on punishment;

Considers:

Having heard the guilty plea of the defendant to the charges brought against him, the Court has no alternative but to declare the defendant guilty of the said charges.

With regards to punishment, the Court took into consideration the accused's early admission of guilt, the fact that he is not a first-time offender, the nature of the offences of which he stands charged and the circumstances of the case, namely that the defendant acted in concert with others in committing this mean and despicable offence which witnessed the exploitation of a person's kindness and generosity.

In view of the above, the Court, after having seen articles 17, 23, 23A, 23B, 31, 49 and 334 of the Criminal Code, Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta and Article 3 of The Prevention of Money Laundering Act, Chapter 373 of the Laws of Malta, finds the defendant guilty of the charges brought against him and sentences him to a punishment of two (2) years imprisonment which, by application of article 28A of the Criminal Code, Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, are being suspended for four years from this day.

Furthermore, having seen articles 15A and 532A of the Criminal Code, Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, orders the defendant to make complete restitution to the complainant, namely paying her the sum of €3,500 in monthly payments which are to be paid within twelve months commencing today. Should defendant default in making the said monthly payments, the outstanding amount shall immediately be due.

The Court explained to the defendant in ordinary language the significance of this judgement as well as the consequences he will face should he fail to observe the conditions imposed; namely should he commit another offence during the operative period of the suspended sentence or should he fail to make payment to the complainant as is being ordered by this Court, the sentence of two years imprisonment will be brought into force forthwith.

In terms of Article 533 of the Criminal Code, Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, orders the defendant to the payment of €1,858 equivalent to one sixth of the amount due as expert fees.¹

Finally in terms of Article 3(5) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, Chapter 373 Laws of Malta, and Article 22(3A)(b)(d)(7) of the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance, Chapter 101 of the Laws of Malta, rendered applicable to these proceedings by Article 3(7) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, Chapter 373 Laws of Malta, orders the forfeiture in favour of the Government of all moneys or other movable property, and of the entire immovable property of the person so found guilty even if the immovable property has since the offender was charged passed into the hands of third parties, and even if the said monies, movable property or immovable property are situated in any place outside Malta.²

To this end the Asset Recovery Bureau are to conduct the necessary enquiries to ascertain any assets pertaining to the defendant and thus liable to forfeiture in favour of Government.
