That on the same place, time and circumsanced at night time, disturbed the repose of the inhabitants by rowdiness or bawling, or in any other manner;

Having heard the accused duly assisted, plead guilty to all charges;

Finds accused to be guilty as charged, after having seen Sections 338 (m) and 325 (1) (b) of Chapter 9;

The Court considers, for the purpose of punishment, the fact that defendant is making good for all the damages which he caused, the fact that he has a clean criminal record, and that he registered an early admission, therefore, after having also seen section 22 of Chapter 446, frees defendant on condition that he does not commit another offence for a period of one year from today;

The Court declares that it explained to defendant, in plain language, the legal import of this judgement.
