TODAY SATURDAY THE 8TH OF JANUARY, 2005.

The Court;

Having seen the charges brought against the accused Murat Magomedovic Bostanov where he was charged with having on these islands on the 06th January, 2005 at about 1900 hrs in Valletta;

1 Committed theft of a clothing valued at seventy three Maltese liri and ninety-six cents (Lm73.96) to the detriment of Springfield Company Limited, which theft was aggravated by time and this in terms of sections 261(f), of Chap. 9 of the Laws of Malta.

Having seen that the Prosecution has withdrawn the aggravated circumstance of “time”, and that therefore the charges brought against the accused now consist of the charge of simple theft in terms of section 284 of Chap. 9 of the Laws of Malta;

Having seen that the accused assisted by defence counsel has admitted the charge of simple theft;

Having also seen that the value of the goods stolen exceeds the amount of ten Maltese Liri (Lm10) as provided in Section 284;

The Court therefore finds the accused guilty of simple theft and sentences him to one (1) month’s imprisonment.
