7. on the same date, time, place and under the same circumstances disobeyed the lawful orders of persons entrusted with a public service, namely, Inspector Therese Sciberras, WPS102 Ruth Magro, WPC31 Susan Muscat and WPC169 Doris Camilleri, or hindered or obstructed such persons in the exercise of their duties, or otherwise unduly interfered with the exercise of such duties, either by preventing other persons from doing what they are lawfully enjoined or allowed to do, or frustrating or undoing what has been lawfully done by other persons or in any other manner whatsoever.

Having seen the note of the Attorney General whereby he gave his consent that this case be treated summarily.

Having seen the records of the case of the 14th February, 2005 where the accused admitted to the charges as proffered.

Informal Copy of Judgement

Having heard defence counsel and the prosecution with regard to the punishment to be applied.

Consequently, the Court finds the accused guilty of all the charges as proffered. Having seen sections 86, 87(1)(c), 221(1), 339(1)(d), 95, 96 and 338(ee) of the Criminal Code. Having seen the clean conduct sheet of the accused and the fact that she has already spent twelve days in detention. The Court condemns her to a period of one year imprisonment but having seen section 28A of the Criminal Code orders that this sentence be not executed unless the accused commits a further offence punishable with imprisonment within the next four years.
