breach of Articles 261, 267, 268 and 269 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta.

Having heard the evidence tendered on oath;

Having seen the record of the proceedings;

Having heard the plea of admission (at page 3) entered by the accused.

Having heard the confirmation of the same plea registered by the accused, after the Court gave a reasonable time for the accused to reconsider his plea.

Having heard the oral submissions of the parties;

Considers:-

On his own admission, the Court finds the accused guilty as charged, and after having seen Articles 261, 267, 268, 269 and 28A of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, condemns him to fourteen (14) months imprisonment suspended for three years.

This punishment was accorded to the accused after the Court took into consideration the fact that the accused is a first time offender, that he registered an early plea of admission and the fact that the accused found himself in dire financial straits.
