Radjiev from Uzbekistan, Jakub Palenik from Slovakia and Bollette Elie from France.

Having heard the accused plead guilty to the charges on which plea the accused insisted even after having been granted time to reconsider his plea of admission.

Having seen the records of the case.

Considers:

That on the voluntary and unconditional admission of the accused to the charges brought against him.

That the charges are those of theft aggravated by the value of the amount stolen.

That the accused has returned the amount to its lawful owners.

Having seen article 18, 39, 261(c), 270 and 280(1) of the Criminal Code decides to apply article 22 of Chapter 446 and consequently acquits the accused on conditions that he does not commit a further offence for a period of three months from today.
