

SMALL CLAIMS TRIBUNAL

ADJUDICATOR
RAPHAEL FENECH ADAMI

Sitting of the 12 th March, 2010

Talba Number. 60/2010

Vodafone Malta Limited

vs

Ian Cooper

The Tribunal,

Has taken note of the claim lodged by the plaintiff company which was filed on the 25th of January, 2010 in virtue of which they are claiming to be owed by the defendant the sum of eight hundred and ninety euro and fourteen euro cents (€890.14c) representing services rendered in connection with mobile phone number 79938557 which services were rendered in favor of the said defendant. With expenses including those of the garnishee order filed together with the said claim and with interests due from when the pretended amount fell due until payment in full is effected against the said defendant who is from now being called upon to be summoned as a party.

The Tribunal notes that when the case was called the defendant who had failed to file a reply in contestation of the said claim appeared before the said Tribunal and after having explained to him the contents of the claim being lodged by the plaintiff company, he admitted the fact that the said amount was in fact due by him. The Tribunal invited the defendant to take the stand in order to confirm on oath the admission verbally confirmed by him in front of the Tribunal. The defendant in fact did take the witness stand and on oath confirmed that the amount being claimed by Vodafone Malta Limited was in fact due by him and requested that he be given a time frame within which to repay same.

Hence, the Tribunal in due of this testimony proceeded to pass judgment and therefore It is deciding the case in the sense that upon the admission of the said defendant, the Tribunal is admitting the claim lodged by the plaintiff company and thereby condemns the defendant to pay the amount requested to the sum of eight hundred and ninety euro and fourteen cents (€890.14c) in favor of plaintiff company, with interest to start running from the date of filing of said court case and with the judicial costs at the expense of the said defendant.

< Final Judgement >

-----END-----