AH
vs
YB

The Court,

Having seen the joint application by virtue of which the parties, inter alia, premised: that they are married, and from this marriage they have one child who is still a minor; that proceedings for personal separation have been instituted before this Court, and are still pending; that the parties have lived apart for a period exceeding four years; that for the above reasons the parties are requesting this Court, in terms of Article 66F of Chapter 16 of the Laws of Malta, that the present proceedings be converted into

Divorce proceedings; and subsequently declare the divorce between the parties;

Having heard the evidence on oath;

Having considered;

That from the evidence heard, the Court is of the opinion that the conditions stipulated in article 66B are satisfied;

For this reason the Court accedes to applicants' request by converting the demand for personal separation into a demand for divorce in terms of Article 66F aforementioned; and orders the consequent adjustments in the sworn application, and the sworn counter-claim.
