Malta without being in possession of a passport and not having furnished to the Principal Immigration Officer the prescribed information and such other information as the Principal Immigration Officer may deem proper to require, and this in violation of article 28 of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta.

And with having in Malta, under the same circumstances, made use or caused to be made a false return, false statement or false representation and/or furnished the Principal Immigration Officer with false information and this in violation of section 32(1)(c) of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta.

Having seen section 28 and 32(1)(c) of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta.

Having heard the defendant plead guilty to the charges brought against her during the sitting held today by this Court sitting as a Court of Criminal Inquiry and having heard the defendant confirm this admission of guilt even after having been given time to reconsider her plea.

Having seen the documents filed by the prosecuting office.

Having heard submissions regarding the penalty to be meted out.

Having considered

The defendant admitted the charges brought against her; these are consequently sufficiently proved.

With regard to the penalty to be meted out the Court took into consideration the nature of the offences of which the defendant is being found guilty, her co-operation with the police, and her admission at the earliest stage of these proceedings.

Wherefore the Court, after having seen sections 28 and 32(1)(c) of Chapter 217 of the Laws of Malta, on her
