Therefore, after exhibiting the relative documents of the above mentioned persons, we request that this case be investigated according to law.

Having heard the plea of guilt of each accused as registered in the first sitting of the 30 August, 2013;

Having seen the records of the case;

Finds the accused guilty as charged;

Having seen articles 18, 261(c) and (g), 267, 271, 279(a), 282 and Schedule D of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta;

Having seen the conduct sheet of the accused representative only of their conduct during their stay in Malta;

Having considered that the commission of this crime is a new phenomenon in Malta more so when it is committed in an organized manner such as in this case, the Court feels that it is duty bound to prevent a further escalation of this phenomenon by sending a strong message to would be perpetrators of this crime and therefore commits the accused to a term of imprisonment of thirteen (13) months from today.

Since the prosecution did not have the consent of the attorney general for this case to be tried summarily, the Court orders that these acts be transmitted to the attorney general within the time prescribed by law.
