Kopja Informali ta' Sentenza

qabel, jikteb bil-pseudonimu 'Alan Lake' ghalkemm jismu Alan Derek Ayling:

Ander's Breivik the extreme right-wing political terrorist who butchered, murdered and maimed a bunch of innocent misguided kids on their summer camp is the son of the former Norwegian diplomat to London and step son of a former army Major.

When he was arrested on Utoya Island he claimed that his actions were a coup de tat.

What circles was he walking in at 22 years old and whose path did he cross, in and amongst those circles when these are his family ties?

Let's not be naïve here.

Breivik claims that he attended a meeting in London in 2002 with a group who he has stated are Knights Templar's. He was in London in 2002 directly after his Liberia trip (1 – 2 weeks). He has stated that his trip to Liberia was part of his recruitment process into the secretive right-wing group.

Was his father working in London in 2002?

What type of circles was his father walking in, in London due to his diplomatic political position?

Let's not be naïve here.

I obviously do not know the full background to Alan Ayling/Lake and what secretive little groups he belongs to but what I do know is that one of his partners in his property company Bridgewater House included Penny Jonas who is the fund director at Temple Church London.

Temple Church is the Knights Templar Church in England.

Kopja Informali ta' Sentenza

Not knowing whether or not Alan Ayling/Lake is a member of the Knights Templar in England, he does have a direct connection through Penny Jonas that is known of. Not just any person from within the Order but their Church fund director which is as high up within the structure as a director position is.

Is Ayling/Lake a member of KT London?

I in no way believe the leadership of the Knights Templar in England would have sanctioned Ander's Breivik in Norway to carry out his massacre against a group of innocent European children in the name of right-wing politics but that is not my remit to state for a fact, that is the remit of the Grand Master of the Order to find out and make clear to the public through whatever channels now that their names and reputations are on the line.

My belief is that Ayling/Lake set up his own extremist group aside from the Order but in their name.

Again that is not within my remit to know.

Knowing that Ayling/Lake is directly connected to the Knights Templar in England through the fund director Penny Jonas at Temple Church, it is the responsibility of the Knights Templar's leadership to get to the bottom of Alan Ayling and his association within their ranks and what he has been carrying out in their name.

The blood of innocent Norwegian children at this present moment stains their names and reputations in the eyes of others because of Ayling/Lake, and the Lord Jesus Christ sitting upon His throne is watching what those who claim to defend his name and His followers throughout the ages will do about this.

This is just a matter of fact about the situation.

So Alan Ayling/Lake is directly connected to the Knights Templar in England which links him to Breivik's claim of a meeting with a secretive group in London calling themselves Knights Templar's.

Several witnesses have spoken to the Norwegian media about attending secretive group meetings held in London organised by Ayling/Lake that are ideological meetings with the purpose of brainwashing people to his way of right-wing social political thinking.

Part of that social and political thinking he has impressed upon his group followers is to lie to the media and police.

Alan Ayling/Lake has been interviewed by British police under Norwegian observation over his possible involvement with Breivik.

In light of the new revelatory information about him, his connections, and direct involvement with Breivik, what lies will he be found to have told to them in interview that could be used against him in a court of law?

These secretive group meetings held in London are part of his web based 4Freedoms Community network.

Breivik has stated in police interview that he was inspired by the 4Freedoms Community and that it is ideologically identical to his planned Knights Templar group he has been hoping to establish on the back of his terrorist atrocities.

It has been confirmed that Breivik did not participate on the web forum he was only an observer to my knowledge.

Breivik is known to have actively participated on many web forum discussions about politics, so why did Breivik not participate in discussions on 4Freedoms if he was inspired by it and it is ideologically identical to his own political agenda?

You would have thought that if 4Freedoms was ideologically identical to his own political agenda, then he would have been one of its most active members. He obviously spent enough time browsing the site to know that it is ideologically identical to his own.

To participate in forum discussions on 4Freedoms would have meant leaving an electronic foot print on the website and traceable direct link to Ayling/Lake.

For some reason Breivik did not want to leave a foot print?

What is that reason?

There is a whole host of extremists who participate on the 4Freedoms Community website who fully endorse Breivik's murderous actions against innocent children, and who are directly linked to Ayling/Lake and the EDL leadership.

I was in attendance at the pre founding EDL meeting and founding EDL meeting so know exactly who was present at both meetings.

Breivik claims that his mentor was an English man whose code name was 'Richard the Lionheart'.

At the pre founding EDL meeting there was a man present who operates online under the alias 'Richard the Lionheart' who the Norwegian police know of (not his identity to my knowledge).

Kinana and Ann Marcini can both independently verify this fact if they choose to tell the truth, if not they will be perverting the course of justice which is a very serious crime.

I have an email sent to me from Kinana concerning this meeting 3 years ago after I mistakenly emailed him instead of Ayling/Lake after the meeting took place. Kinana states who was present at the meeting which includes this anonymous person who calls himself 'Richard the Lionheart'.

Kopja Informali ta' Sentenza

A direct link linking Ayling/Lake to someone calling himself 'Richard the Lionheart'.

The Norwegian State prosecutors have claimed that Breivik was a failed businessman.

Breivik had multiple offshore bank accounts, I believe 11 if I am correct, and he washed $600,000 through 3 of his own mothers bank accounts which is a fact released by the Norwegian police.

Who taught Breivik the art of international banking, and was the money really from fake certificates and diplomas or the financing of international terrorism from external sources?

Ayling/Lake works/worked as the manager of the Oracle database within the prestigious European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and is the director of multiple financial/banking businesses that look more like money funneling operations.

In one of his companies he had a Norwegian secretary.

Who is she and what is her background?

Ayling/Lake is also directly connected through his money funneling companies to other very high profile people working within large international banks (Deutsche Bank Singapore) (Eurochambers Singapore), whose reputations would be SERIOUSLY damaged if it is proven that Ayling/Lake is behind Breivik.

Who taught Breivik the failed businessman the art of international banking?

Considering Breivik's mother is inextricably linked to his crimes through the money trail, why has she not been arrested and charged for her complicity in Breivik's heinous crimes?

Kopja Informali ta' Sentenza

I didn't not know, or realise, is not an excuse before the law when a serious crime has been committed.

Then you ask; why has Breivik not been offered a deal to prevent his mother from being prosecuted?

I am sure everyone intimately involved in Breivik's crimes would agree that a deal for his innocent mother is a price worth paying in the scheme of things.

The bank that Ayling/Lake works/worked for operates in Serbia and the Balkans which possibly brings in the link to the Serbian connection in 2002.

One of Breivik's main aims has been to highlight the work of Fraudman his Norwegian comrade after he named his "2083" manifesto after one of Fraudman's essays "A European Declaration of Independence".

When Ayling/Lake was interviewed by the Norwegian press he also wanted to bring to people's attention to the written work of Fraudman Breivik's ideological inspiration.

Breivik had direct email contact with Fraudman and when Fraudman knew the Norwegian police were seeking him he hid his computer from them in a lock up.

Ayling/Lake is directly connected to Fraudman.

In any mentor mentee relationship there will inevitably be a common language spoken about certain issues discussed, and the ideas, ideology and language that Breivik speaks about his politics and terrorist ideas is exactly the same language that Ayling/Lake speaks.

Breivik's video is a vision from a group calling themselves 'cultural conservatives' and when Ayling/Lake was interviewed by the Norwegian press he claimed he was an old school conservative.

That obviously does not mean much as many people are conservative in their views and politics but when added up with the rest of the information pointing at Ayling/Lake it is one more piece of circumstantial ideological evidence linking them both.

I believe Breivik boasts in his manifesto (I haven't read it) of having 600 or more EDL BNP Facebook friends.

Ayling/Lake is the director behind the EDL and point man for all those people behind it that reaches right up into the heart of the British Establishment.

The EDL's No.1 & No.2 Steven Lennon and Kevin Carroll were at one time both active BNP members and supporters.

Steven Lennon was on the leaked BNP membership list as a family gold member and was photographed at a BNP meeting where a leader of the neo-nazi group November 9 society was giving a presentation in Luton.

Kevin Carroll was a signatory on his local BNP councilor's election application form.

They both come from a family of IRA supporters which obviously influences their viewpoint which is against the State and Crown, irrespective of the "bull bleep" they spout in front of their EDL supporters and the media.

Ayling/Lake is the director behind them and the links that go wherever they go which isn't my problem.

Due to specific historic reasons too long to go into full depth here, Ayling/Lake, Lennon and Carroll all had reason to want me removed from being a threat to their continued European political agenda and mass money making operation that involves the distribution of cocaine throughout the EDL network across the Country, amongst the other things they are making money from in the EDL name.

People very close to Lennon and Carroll claim from reliable sources that the drugs they are distributing amongst the EDL membership originate from the main "Asians" in Luton which is why they have been able to get away with their EDL activities in the Town.

Luton is an Al Qaeda strong hold, so do you really think they would have been able to get away with their anti-Islam activities if they did not have some type of permission from the "Asians" for some reason?

Even the leader of the EDL having a money laundering operation through a sun bed shop that was not torched or attacked by the moslems.

They probably laugh at the English behind their backs amongst themselves in Luton.

Shame on you Old school MIG's.

Ayling/Lake had every reason to use Breivik to set me up in the hope that I would be arrested for being behind Breivik or directly linked to him, only that plan has not gone to plan.

Jesus upon His throne has my back against these evil men, and hopefully His servants on Earth in high places who know the truth about this whole saga and want the full truth to be known about them.

Massacring a bunch of innocent kids on their summer camp in Norway is hard for anyone to take who have a basic form of humanity within them.

So imagine how I felt being accused by these people of being the person behind it, when it is they themselves where this traces back too!!!

The reputations of those who this traces back to are not above the blood of the innocence of Utoya and the tears of their families that I can assure you of.

The King of Norway should force the deal through for Breivik's mother and open the truth up to everyone who is watching this case and reveal from Breivik's own mouth who his real English 'mentor' is.

Ayling/Lake is surrounded by a group of extremely influential people in civil society who in no way want to be caught up in the Breivik case which in my mind is the reason why no action has been taken against Ayling/Lake and his little group of 'cultural conservatives'.

It goes right up into Westminster and the House of Lords.

Is that justice in the "Mother of all Democracies"?

There are many Lord's who have been sent to prison for breaking the law so they are not immune from prosecution in the UK, so neither is Ayling/Lake, especially over such a horrific case in the small little peace loving Nation of Norway that has shocked the Country and the people to its core.

What a dark stain that needs cleaning up!

God bless the Queen & Duke and long may they reign before the Lord...

P.S Ayling/Lake infiltrated the SIO movement for his own political agenda, operating under their banner in Europe, using them to develop his network of political extremists for his personal agenda, and is directly linked to several Norwegian MP's who were recorded talking about carrying out a coup against their Government at a Stop the Islamisation of Norway conference, with similar attacks to the attacks Breivik actually carried out.

And the Norwegian State prosecutors in the court of law before the eyes of the Worlds media want the global public audience to believe Breivik is a "solo terrorist" linked to no one, and they are fighting tooth and nail to get the insane label placed upon him to make it complete.

Fit-tieni artikolu, din id-darba intitolat 'Alan Lake - Food for thought', ippubblikat fid 29 ta' April 2012, 'Lionheart' ikompli jghid is-segwenti:

I wasn't going to comment on anything concerning Breivik and who I believe his English 'mentor' is anymore but I just couldn't help myself.

When you look at it in context Alan Ayling aka Alan Lake has some serious protection in this earthly realm, protection that is not afforded to us mere mortals lower down the social ladder who do not have the added wealth or family background to walk in such circles who we can call upon to protect us from the law.

How high that protection goes and whether or not it reaches right up into the Queen's courts is obviously something we mere mortals would not know.

Someone knows though.

Hopefully the Queen and her consorts would want to do what is right before God and get to the bottom of this nasty stain within her 'Realm' for the sake of the families and survivors in Norway, and not turn a blind eye to something of such a grave nature that is still festering under the surface.

Alan Ayling has been directly implicated in the Breivik enquiry as the English 'mentor' behind the monster Ander's Breivik. He is directly connected to Temple Church London which is the home of the Knights Templar in England. He was there at the founding meeting of the English Defence League because it took place in his London Barbican flat. Breivik's countdown for the planning and preparation for his July 22nd 2011 attacks is within the exact same time frame as the establishing of the EDL. He is directly connected to someone who uses the alias 'Richard the Lionheart' online, and it's now known from Breivik himself from police interview that Ayling's 4Freedoms Community website is ideologically identical to Breivik's own political ideology and agenda. He has secretive social political brainwashing meetings in secret locations throughout London under the 4Freedoms banner that have been attended by Norwegians. He is directly connected to the same ideological political network Breivik is a part of which includes Breivik's Norwegian comrade Fraudman who the manifesto is named after. He has stated that he has friends from within the Norwegian political Establishment, and in one of his money funneling businesses he had a Norwegian secretary. He is also directly connected to a professor in military strategies who was present at the founding EDL meeting as can be confirmed by a Sunday Time's journalist.

He is also a proven liar!

The Norwegian State prosecutors have also claimed that Breivik is a failed business man, but he laundered $600,000 through 3 of his mother's bank accounts from 11 offshore bank accounts, so I don't know where they get the "failed" from when he is dealing with that sort of money.

Who taught Breivik the art of international banking and money funneling?

Alan Ayling and his associates are all bankers, working inside prestigious international banks.

Based upon all of that information you have the exact profile of the English 'mentor' Breivik speaks of in his manifesto. And there is more information linking him but they are the most obvious and clear points.

Yet he has not been arrested and interrogated by anti-terror police under police caution?

I wonder in my mind whether he was lawyered up to the maximum when he had his voluntary police interview about his possible involvement or whether he went 'alone' to answer questions to help the enquiry along?

After all Temple Church that he is directly linked too is full of the best lawyers in the Country.

I should imagine the Norwegians who have been called an international pipsqueak by international experts hit a mighty big brick wall in the UK when they came across Ayling due to all of his connections.

Let's not forget that Norway has a smaller population than Ireland, so compared to most other European intelligence agencies they are small and not as well equipped to deal with international terrorism like we are, especially not to deal with an incident of such magnitude as July 22nd 2011 that spans many Countries and several continents.

I should imagine they found many brick walls in the course of the investigation, and makes you wonder whether they resigned themselves to the fact that they are never going to get to the bottom of the truth behind Breivik and hold others to account because of the level of the actors involved with him and the protection they have, so settled with the "solo terrorist" linked to no one 'official line'.

I am quite sure that most researchers of this case know that that claim is ridiculous.

It's highly unlikely the Norwegian prosecutors are going to start throwing accusations at their bigger European counterparts without any concrete evidence are they, and what about the links into America?

One of the founding admins on the Norwegian Defence League Facebook group that Breivik was a part of at its inception was the profile of a dead man from West Virginia.

All the Norwegians are left with is Breivik who is one of their own so have tailored the proceedings around him alone.

Kopja Informali ta' Sentenza

That is called a Government cover up which does not do justice for all those murdered and maimed on July 22nd 2011 and their families left behind, and does not do justice for me and my family either. We are not Norwegian, we are English so I am coming at this from a different perspective and I want the full truth to be known on an 'official basis' regardless of who is offended.

An explanation as to why I was dragged into this and the unanswered questions surrounding Alan Ayling/Lake to be answered, namely who his friend 'Richard the Lionheart' is.

As soon as this happened and I stood accused of being the English 'mentor' because of the carefully crafted plan that was tailored specifically to suit me, I said Alan Lake was the real source of this and 9 months on all the evidence that has emerged proves that my very first claim was right, only no action has been taken against him due to the level of State protection he has surrounding him.

This obviously leaves me wondering all the different angles as to why nothing has happened against him yet.

There is a string of witnesses in the UK who should also be interviewed or interrogated under police caution as part of the ongoing enquiry yet this still has not happened 9 months on.

I personally can only come to certain conclusions about this.

Alan Ayling has State protection which means he has high level State actors working on his behalf within the British Establishment who have been protecting him from a full and thorough police investigation which means they have been influencing the police (Scotland Yard) even though all of the evidence is stacked up against him as being the English 'mentor'. I did question some months back as to whether or not he was an asset or agent of the State.

Is he or isn't he Mr. Hague?

Are his 'protectors' the rulers of the British isles, so his protection comes from within the Queen's courts and have sanctioned his work in Norway or are they corrupt people in high positions of power behind him and his political activities who now have the blood of Norwegian children on their hands and want it all covered up so that it is not traced back to them?

Based upon the evidence "Dave" the leader of the British people should have ordered the known members of this group who are mentioned throughout the pages of this blog to be arrested and interrogated by the British police as part of the ongoing enquiry but this has not happened.

I personally do not care about those sitting in Westminster or the House of Lords who have been working with Ayling and his EDL activities over the past couple of years because I think it very unlikely that they would have endorsed the attack against Norway if they knew anything about it.

That was Ayling operating on his own, or with close associates like his military strategist professor friend who was present at the founding EDL meeting to discuss strategy, thinking it would never come back to haunt him/them which is why they set me up.

Their only crime in Westminster and the House of Lords is backing Ayling and his political activities in the UK, but that's politics and what we expect from politicians.

International terrorism is a completely different ball game.

If they are protecting him from a full and thorough police investigation based upon the evidence against him as part of the ongoing Breivik enquiry then that's a completely different matter and means there is complicity on some level in his crimes and then they should be held to account for their actions.

Perverting the course of justice...

Apart from that Ayling in my mind based upon the facts is the one Breivik speaks of in the manifesto and as part of any police investigation if the evidence trail leads somewhere then the police have a duty to enforce the law and investigate the evidence properly which is the system that is in place within a democracy, and nobody is above the law.

Even those sitting in Westminster and the House of Lords.

One of the people who should be arrested as part of the investigation is Ann Marchini who is a close friend of Ayling's and an integral part of the enquiry.

I turned to her about setting up the English Defence League as a National street protest movement in June/July 2009 and she turned to Ayling aka Lake who I had never met before this point, who arranged a meeting in his Barbican flat pre the founding EDL meeting.

Ayling invited 2 other people to that meeting, Kinana and the anonymous 'Richard the Lionheart'.

Why did Ann Marchini turn to Ayling, what was the reason to choose him to set the EDL up?

She has already told a load of lies to a Sunday Times journalist so it's highly unlikely you will get the truth out of her, but there are clear facts and evidence she cannot escape from.

Ann Marchini worked for Sir Howard Hodgkin's who is a 'Companion of Honour' within his art gallery for the past 17 years, so that shows you the high level influence right up into the British Establishment she has behind her.

She was also a business partner of Michael J Hermann who is a respectable British author and expert on Economic Growth in Eastern Europe who has a publishing company in the Czech Republic.

Kopja Informali ta' Sentenza

You could argue and wonder whether or not these people knew about Ann Marchini's extreme right-wing political activities, but that's irrelevant at the moment because they are not the ones in question here.

The question remains though; whether or not Marchini's connections are influencing others to protect her from a full and thorough police investigation because she is key to Ayling and the anonymous 'Richard the Lionheart'?

After working for Sir Howard Hodgkin's for 17 years you can only imagine the contacts she has made that go right into Westminster and the Houses of Lords who are probably on very nervous ground right now because of the Breivik enquiry and her direct involvement.

This is why the investigation has been controlled from the VERY TOP of the British State!!!

And they have avoided the heat up until now which does not serve 'truth & justice', it only serves the interests of men and women who think themselves to be more equal than others because of their money and social standing who do not want to be tainted with the horrors of Norway.

Imagine how I feel then, and how my family feels.

We are all equal before God and truth & justice will prevail.

Alan Ayling is a different ball game all together, and he must have some SERIOUS money behind him although he plays the part of only being a manager of the Oracle database in the prestigious European Bank for Reconstruction and Development as his day job.

Ayling's partners in his Pacific Capital Investment company that I know of at this moment in time include the likes of Michael Collins who was recently appointed President of the European Chamber of Commerce (Eurochambers) in Singapore and Karen (onsoyen) Tan who is an investor and Director of a hedge fund group at Deutsche Bank in Singapore.

All these direct links into European Banks spanning the Globe.

How did that work out?

You could argue and wonder what has Alan Ayling been doing running around the UK as the director behind the English Defence League for, for the past 3 years when these are his business associates?

Did his business partners know about his extra curricula right-wing political activities?

Alan Ayling and the EDL leadership try denying his involvement but I know the truth and there's enough interviews and videos all over the internet that show you as clear as day, so any denials are blatant lies to try and cover up the truth.

Can you imagine the type of protection he has and the type of people he is mixed up with if these are his known contacts in prestigious European banks, not just contacts in banks either but actual business partners?

What's that all about?

Alan Ayling's other past and present partners at his property company Bridgewater House RTM includes the likes of Penny Jonas who is the fund director at Temple Church (Knights Templar), Jim Thornton who is a lay-preacher and former Conservative Councillor in Hertford and Bob Humphreys who now heads up IS and Finance at Oxfam.

Again, all money men and women except for the Tory Councilor which is a direct link into Westminster.

Is it any wonder the Norwegians have hit a brick wall when faced with Ayling when these are the known contacts he is intimately involved with, imagine all the unknown contacts he has surrounding him who you can be sure know about his right-wing political activities and have been supporting and endorsing him in them over the past 3 years with the EDL street protest movement, and beyond that dating back to the 2002 time frame.

I should imagine there are Government ministers dictating to Scotland Yard on this one which has placed Ayling beyond the reach of justice because of the reputations of people that are now at stake.

What do they care about little old Norway I should imagine is their fat cat attitude, just so long as the st does not land on them and they will take whatever action necessary to make sure it doesn't in their secretive little hand shake meetings.

Maybe the serious journalists following this case should contact a few of these people, confirm their links to Alan Ayling and get their thoughts and opinions on his extra curricula right-wing political activities and put their names linking them to him through their mutual businesses, and his link to Breivik enquiry as the possible English 'mentor' in the National newspapers.

It's in the public domain now because it's written here on this blog.

All evidence in the Breivik case traces back to Alan Ayling as being the English 'mentor' behind Ander's Breivik. If Alan Ayling was just a respectable business man who worked in a bank connected to all of these people and this was just accusations then you could understand a hint of skepticism. Ayling has been running around the UK with the EDL since its beginning, he has been across Europe preaching his anti-Islam political ideals, and has been trying to start a Europe wide political movement with a much much bigger international group. He also owns a right-wing website that hosts talk of murder and assassinations against political opponents that is directly linked to Breivik himself who has said in police interview that the 4Freedoms Community website owned by Ayling is the same political ideology and agenda as his own.

Alan Ayling also had very good reason and motive to use Breivik to frame me as the Norwegian police know.

All of those respectable known contacts of Alan Ayling cannot say they did not know of his political activities, then the question remains as to how high up his supporters and endorsers go and are they shielding and protecting him on Government level from the Breivik enquiry.

Alan Ayling is a State actor or State controlled so I answered my question Mr. Hague.

I can only imagine the complex investigation surrounding Alan Ayling when these are all his business partners. His business partners reach to the very top of Civil Society and beyond into Europe, the same as Ann Marchini's and is the reason why he has evaded a full and thorough investigation in the Breivik case even though all evidence traces back to him.

I should imagine the police have much more incriminating evidence against him as well, other than the stuff I know about and have written about.

Maybe Breivik being offered the deal for his mother's immunity would save a lot of time and hassle and would be the final link in the chain to prosecute Alan Ayling..

It's about time Ayling was held accountable for his crimes and the truth behind this anonymous 'Richard the Lionheart' was revealed to the public as part of the discourse over the Breivik case.

I cannot see how it can be ignored any longer?

Lionheart, di fatti jghid:

"We are fighting to promote Democracy in foreign lands and we do not even have Democracy in our own lands, well Norway anyway and I am yet to see about the UK with regards to Alan Ayling aka Alan Lake and his involvement with Breivik. The Gareth Williams case is a good bench mark to see that those who have the voice can use their voices to force others in Power to act on their behalf in the interest of 'truth and justice'.

For me this is the most important piece of evidence still missing from the public record of the case. As soon as I realised I had been set up with Breivik I stated "Alan Lake" the director behind the EDL was where this came from, and 9 months on all evidence now completely proves my first assumption as being right yet no action has been taken against him.

Alan Lake has a friend who calls himself 'Richard the Lionheart' yet this person has not been disclosed to the public and nobody knows whether or not the police have interviewed him yet about his possible involvement with Breivik as being the English 'mentor' Breivik speaks about in his manifesto.

I personally believe Alan Lake is the 'mentor' and this 'Richard the Lionheart' is the conduit between them, and there are witnesses who can confirm this person's existence along with an email stating those people and this person's existence.

Who taught Breivik the art of international banking? Alan Lake works in a prestigious bank has several money funneling businesses and is connected to several high profile people in other large high profile European banks around the world."
