Having seen sections 261(c)(f), 267 and 270 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta.

Having seen the documents exhibited by the prosecuting officer.

Having heard the submissions regarding the penalty to be meted out.

Having considered

That defendant admitted the charge brought against him; this is subsequently sufficiently proved.

Regards the penalty to be meted out the Court considered the nature of the offence of which defendant is being found guilty, his cooperation with the police and his admission at the earliest stage of these proceedings.

Wherefore the Court after having seen 261(c)(f), 267 and 270 of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta, on his admission finds defendant guilty of the charge brought against him and condemns him to one (1) year imprisonment which by application of section 28A of Chapter 9 of the Laws of Malta is being suspended for a period of two (2) years; furthermore and by application of section 28H of the said Chapter 9 the defendant is being condemned to pay the injured party the sum of five hundred and seventy Euros (€570), payment is to be effected within two (2) months.

The Court explained to the defendant in ordinary language the significance of this judgement and of the consequences should he commit another offence in the period of two years and if he fails to pay the sum of €570 in the stipulated within two months.
